

an urban area smaller than a city that has houses, stores and other places for the members of its community (school, post office, etc.)

town
pueblo

the unique characteristics of a group of people such as language, food, clothing, music, dance, etc.

culture
cultura

a group of people who live in close proximity to one another and/or share similar cultural characteristics

community
comunidad

a place where people gather to buy and sell various goods, including food and livestock

market
mercado

the line (invisible or physical) that separates two areas

border
frontera